

About netzeffekt GmbH

When online marketing maintains the perfect balance between technology, reach and creativity, traffic turns into sales. As a partner and performance agency of the Jung von Matt Group, netzeffekt is not only part of an independent network but also entirely self-sufficient. In-house experts from the three service areas Media, UX and Insights ensure measurable success and provide bundled digital expertise. Tailor-made teams with the most appropriate tools are available depending on the client's needs. With flexible and scalable deployment and the security of a network, netzeffekt enables clients to achieve their sales goals.

From consultancy, analysis and strategy to the conception, management and implementation of campaigns, netzeffekt stands for a common goal: Turning traffic into sales.
